Hope you have loads of work
in a new school;
see you there next
year soon. H.

Thank for all the passes
you signed for me "Jane"

you've been
a special pass and see in homeroom #22. Be good.
you next year. Be good.
Clark.

Hello Teddy
Be good this year
not to many fights
I saw the girls at.

Good luck to a girl
in the gym in Huston. Good luck
to all.

Thanks for helping me
along in history. I really appreciated what you did
I hope you remain the best
of kind in the future.
Chuck Johnson

He had a rare old time
in English class this year! Good luck on your exams!

Prologue

AS THE CURTAIN DESCENDS ON THE FOUR HAPPIEST YEARS OF OUR SCHOOL CAREER, WE LOOK BACK OVER THE MANY UNFORGETTABLE TIMES THAT WILL STAY WITH US THROUGHOUT OUR LIVES.

OUR STAGE HAS BEEN SET WITH THE USUAL LAUGHTER AND TEARS OF LIFE'S NEVER-ENDING CHALLENGES.

HERE ARE RECORDED OUR ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND OUR DEAREST MEMORIES.

STARRING

We, the class of 1950, proudly dedicate this annual to Mr. Harry Wagner, who through his history classes has given us a first-hand example of freedom in action.

ALMA MATER

Standing firm, unwavering,
'Neath the skies above,
Alma Mater, dear to us,
To thee we pledge our love.

Chorus:

Irondequoit, Irondequoit,
To thee we'll e'er be true,
We will always sing thy praise
Dear old Gold and Blue.

Through thy dim and ancient halls,
Students' steps resound,
Ever loyal to the school
To which their hearts are bound.

Chorus:

Spreading knowledge, truth, and skill,
Like beacons in the night,
Alma Mater is our guide,
Dear Irondequoit.

Chorus:

Standing: Harold Mosher, Leo F. Smith. Seated: Mrs. L. B. McKinley, Theron E. Bastian, Charles A. Morrison.

CLASS OF NINETEEN FIFTY

*"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players."*

Two score and six months ago the class of 1950 was hustled through the halls of I. H. S. for the first time to take our respective roles in our world. To assure a bang-up school year, we elected Peter Whitcombe, president; and then, using St. Valentine as the theme, we romped to the tunes of the juke box at the annual frosh party.

By the fall of 1947 our dynamic energy had been somewhat tamed. We chose Alton Stowell soph commander-in-chief and named Geoffrey Mynott and Hilda Klumpp sovereigns of the tenth grade dance, Captain Kidd's Kapers.

Jeff Mynott presided over us during our junior year. Highlights of our first experience as upper classmen were the December hop, Naughty Ninety Nonsense, and the junior prom, Oriental Fantasy, held April 9. With James Rasbach as chairman, the class sponsored Red Cross drive achieved a tremendous success when it rang up a grand total of $172.87.

Suddenly we found ourselves seniors. Kenneth Perrin took over the reins of the class while James Rasbach piloted the Rodequoit, and Georgia Luther and John Evans manned the Neodaondaquat. Forgetting tradition, we staged the senior ball in December amid fragrant evergreens and a lighted cotton snowman.

Now, as the curtain is drawn on the last act of our high school life, we shall step into another stage, an uncloistered world at the threshold of the second half of the twentieth century. With us we take a more mature knowledge and a heart full of priceless memories that will endure even in an atomic age.

SENIOR FAREWELL

Ah, give us our dear old school of dreams
With its famous champion teams.
And with those dreams, we'll always recall
The Junior Prom and the Senior Ball.

Along with these, the folks who taught.
We must admit, we learned a lot.
Remember when we first came here?
We crept around and lived in fear.

The soph and junior years were great,
But our fun is over; it's getting late.
Time is pressing on us now,
But we'd like to make our final bow.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Back Row: D. Kaufman, D. Crossett, R. LaBaer, M. Finegold, G. Hamberger, B. Baase. Second Row: P. Costich, H. Tanner, N. Phelan, A. Littlefield, B. Silberstein, C. Lundgren, R. Scudder. Seated: M. Redfern, J. Leonhard, J. Parsells, B. Tishkoff, V. Dunmall, A. Heinrich.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

This has been an energetic year in the history of our three-year-old Council. The program included the revision of the school Constitution and the selection of a new school song. Co-sponsoring all club dances, Council members engineer school elections, provide noon-hour recreation, conduct school drives, direct student affairs, and supervise the exchange visits between Irondequoit and East York Collegiate Institute of Toronto.

Standing: C. Fisher, Corresponding Secretary; E. Doser, Treasurer. Seated: H. Klumpp, Secretary; P. Whitcombe, President; Miss Burton, Adviser; B. McPherson, Vice-President; N. Jennens, Second Vice-President.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Standing: P. Whitcombe, J. Evans, S. Stott, K. Perrin, J. Rasbach, Mrs. Fattig, D. Russell.
Seated: S. Brodsky, G. Luther, S. Ballard, N. Bookout.

National Honor Society is composed of students who have met the highest standards of scholarship, service, character, and leadership. Tapping assemblies, at which students are admitted to the society, are held twice each year. This society is responsible for the flag salute at each assembly, supervises the service plaque in the lower hall and sponsors one money raising project each year to build up a scholarship fund. Mrs. Dorothy Fattig serves as adviser.

NEODAONDAQUAT

Back Row: D. Russell, J. Kirchner, K. Perrin, D. Voellinger. Second Row: Miss Perlet, S. Brodsky, J. Wells, G. Ehrich, H. Klumpp. First Row: P. Costich, G. Luther, J. Evans, M. A. Weeks, P. Welker.

The members of the annual staff, a senior organization, work throughout the year to bring students and teachers a pictorial record of the year's events. Numerous students aid in the work of a successful publication. Photography, art work, and editing, consuming much time and work, are contributed by seniors. Donating many afternoons, Miss Pauline Perlet advises the group.

RODEQUOIT

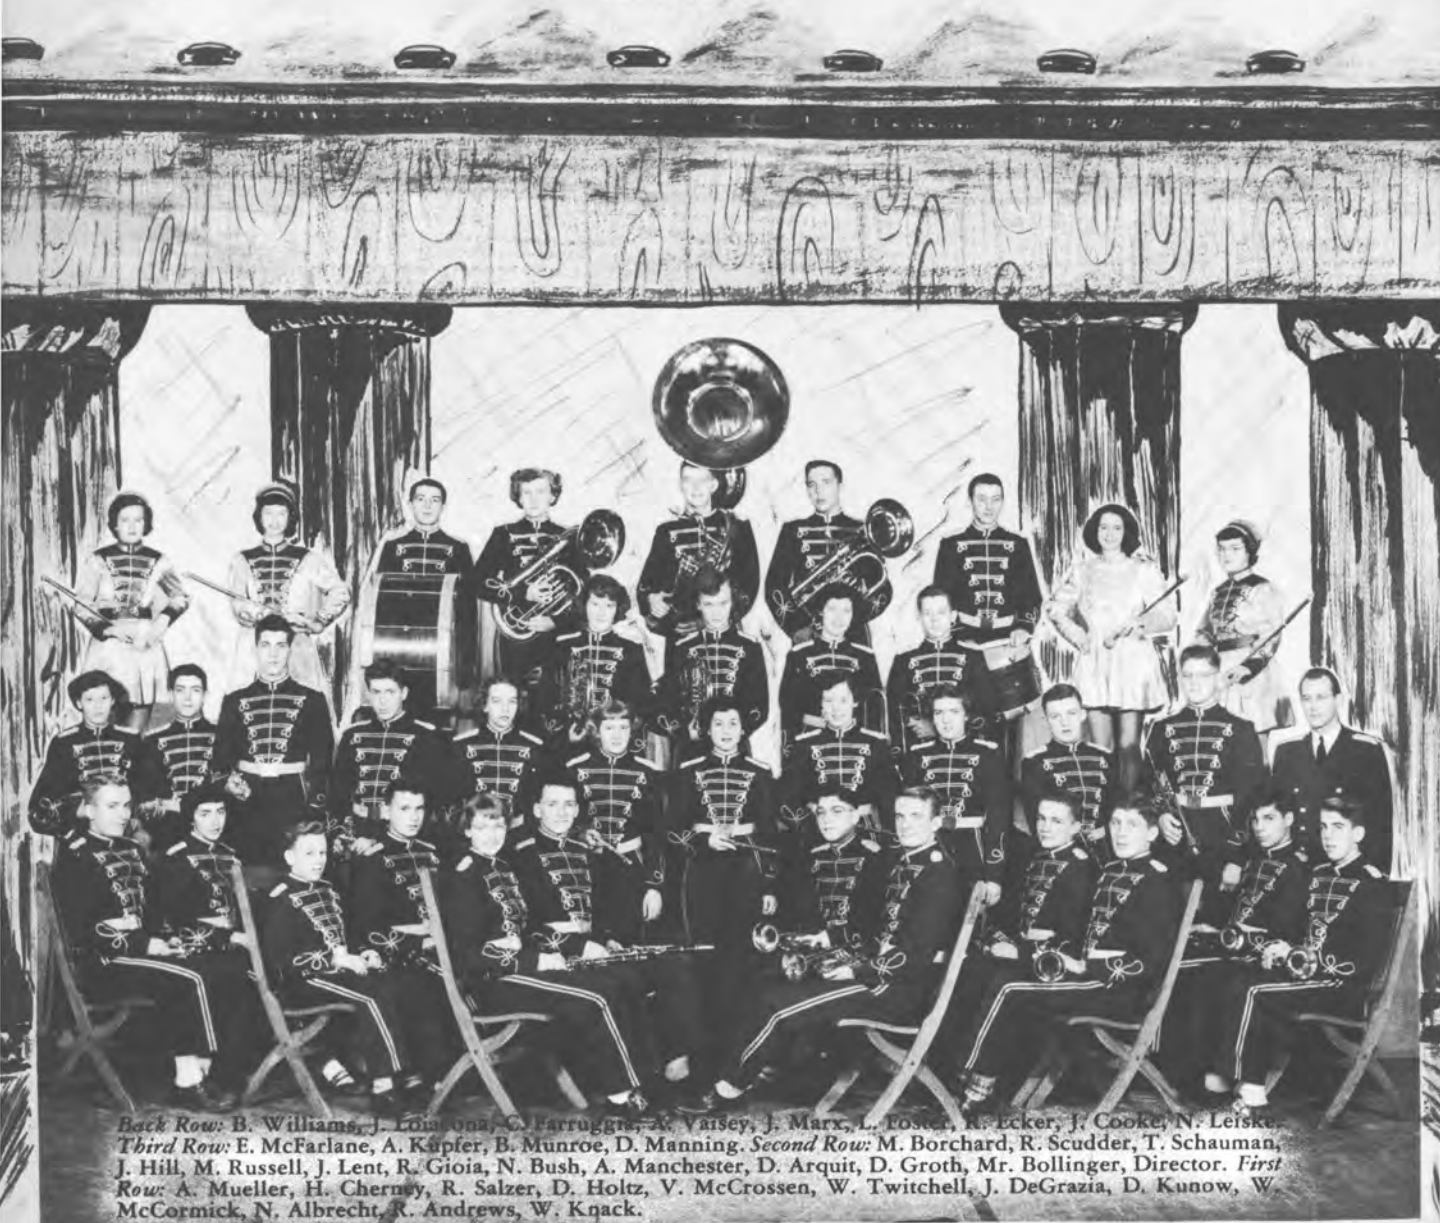

Standing: D. Russell, S. Stott, H. Tanner, D. Katafiaz, C. Gioseffi, I. Bohn, N. Reed, R. Sweetland. Sitting: Miss Butler, Adviser; J. Rasbach, S. Ballard, N. Bookout, J. Stark, Z. Cormack.

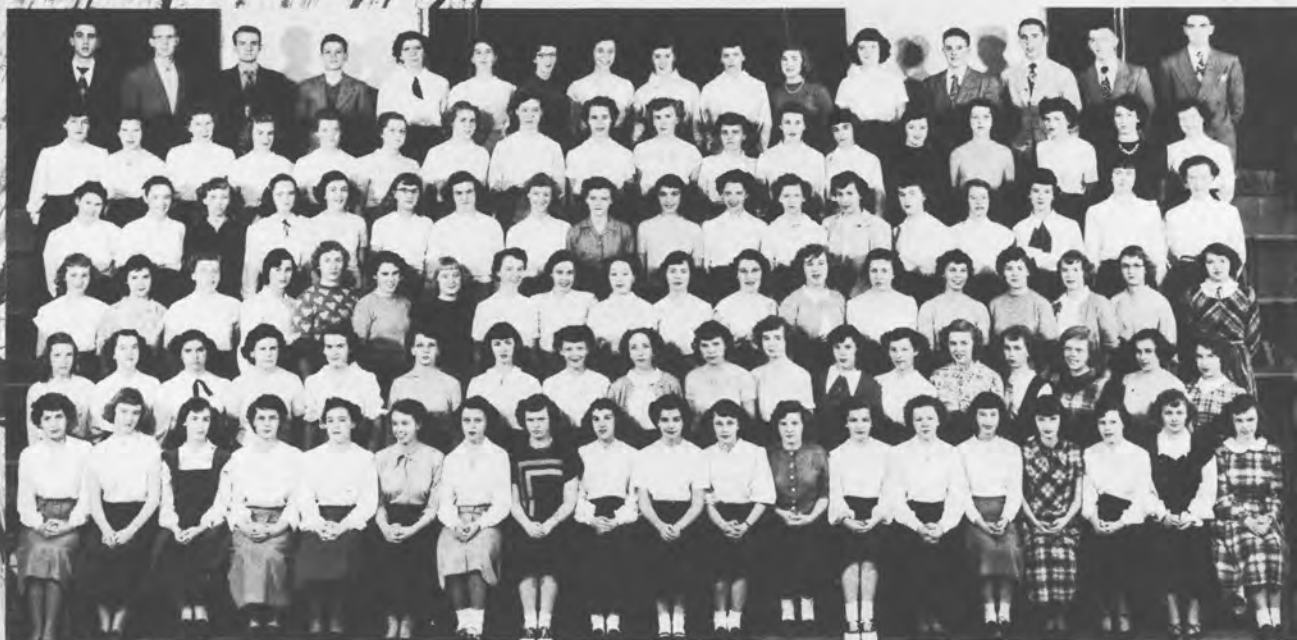

Winning awards either in the field of editorials, news writing, or features is a common occurrence to Rodequoit. A member of the National Scholastic, Empire State School, and Genesee Valley Press Associations, the paper is a monthly publication. The staff, along with the proofreaders, headliners, and typists experience many late hours in work before the finished product reaches the hands of its readers. Rodequoit is under the advisership of Miss Norma Butler.

V. A. C. is composed of sophomore, junior and senior boys who maintain B plus averages in school subjects. Members of this organization run movie projectors for classes and operate the public address system. Under the guidance of Mr. Harry Wagner, the V. A. C. sponsored a juke box dance called the "Flicker Frolic," April first.

RADIO CLUB

Catering to radio enthusiasts, the radio club lists as its activities, operating the cafeteria amplifier for announcements and music, the study of radio parts and simple circuits. More experienced members supervise the work of novices. Membership is open to boys and girls from all classes. Mr. John Dodge is the club's adviser.

STAMP CLUB

Trading stamps, buying new ones and talking them over are among the activities of the stamp club. Each member has a scrapbook in which he keeps his collection. As new stamps are issued, the club purchases enough for each member. With Mr. Earle Helmer as its adviser, the club has also heard experts discuss the subject.

C. Morrison, J. Hilton, C. Grimm, J. Schu, R. Strom.

Students who enjoy taking and developing pictures find an outlet in the photography club. Inaugurated this year, the club lists as its activities learning how to take pictures and process film, improving camera techniques and criticizing prints brought in by members. The club has received instructions in different types of photography.

Thanks

We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the business firms of Rochester, Irondequoit, and vicinity who have used the medium of the Neodaondaquat to advertise their services. Without their aid, we would have been unable to make the annual the book it is.

Let us extend our thanks by patronizing these advertisers.

I'm vreally
sorry if I ever hurt
your feelings when I ~~was~~ kidding you. It's just that I'm really silly and don't think I'll be good and lots of luck.
